

→Activities for Stumbling on Happiness:

Daniel Gilbert has furnished a study guide for reflection available on the publisher’s website. The link is listed below.

<https://www.randomhouse.com/kvpa/gilbert/img/studyguide.pdf>

--Print or view the study guide for yourself. It is 9 pages in total.

--Each chapter begins with a short summary followed by a question for reflection. Type a 200+ word response to the question that is focused and coherent (include word count). Feel free to write in 1st person; however, you are writing to an academic audience who will be evaluating your writing style and skill.

--Format each response as follows in upper left corner:

Name

“Chapter Title”

Book Title

Date

Responses should be double-spaced, with each response on its own page(s).

→Due Dates:

Both assignments are due on Friday, August 18th to your respective AP teacher in class at the start of class. No electronic submissions will be accepted nor will you be given time to print before class. Anything submitted after the due date will receive half credit.

Feel free to contact us with any questions that you may have.
